Trump Concedes to Biden as Twitter Suspends Him but Won’t Attend Inauguration, Cabinet Members Resign

Several cabinet members including the Capitol Police chief have resigned following the Capitol breach on Wednesday. World leaders have condemned the violence as a threat to democracy. The fallout is still enormous and should us pause in what all of this means. Trump is willing to do anything to entrench his own ego. Following several unhinged tweets, Twitter Safety announced it had suspended Trump’s account for 12 hours pending several deletions. Threats of a permanent suspension with further violations no doubt spell a banning after Trump is out of office.

> As a result of the unprecedented and ongoing violent situation in Washington, D.C., we have required the removal of three @realDonaldTrump tweets that were posted earlier today for repeated and severe violations of our Civic Integrity policy. This means that the account of @realDonaldTrump will be locked for 12 hours following the removal of these Tweets. If the Tweets are not removed, the account will remain locked. Future violations of the Twitter Rules, including our Civic Integrity or Violent Threats policies, will result in permanent suspension of the @realDonaldTrump account. Our public interest policy — which has guided our enforcement action in this area for years — ends where we believe the risk of harm is higher and/or more severe. We’ll continue to evaluate the situation in real time, including examining activity on the ground and statements made off Twitter. We will keep the public informed, including if further escalation in our enforcement approach is necessary.

The left has been accused by the right, not incorrectly, of having nothing but a nihilistic vision. While the left is engaged in the destruction of everything beautiful, could not the same be said of the modern American conservative movement?

> The Tea Party dressed like founding fathers, had symbols like Gadsden flag, country music. Things that indicate ideology or background, like every movement, right or left. These people have nothing but plastering Trump's name on themselves. Just so soulless and ugly. SJW women have short dyed hair, revealing rejection of traditional standards of beauty and sexual modesty. Antifa symbol represents an idea, same with white nationalism, they have the confederacy, swastikas. MAGA literally has no symbol or aesthetics beyond the cult.

> There was the Blue Lives Matter flag for a while. That represented something real beyond the cult. But I don't see it much anymore. The cult doesn't have room for any idea, it doesn't have the attention span to care. They could be anti-cop tomorrow depending on what Trump says. So it's already happened! MAGA is now stomping on the Blue Lives Matter flag. Hate the left all you want, they have something resembling a human belief system, they're not going to turn around and stomp on the rainbow flag or a BLM banner tomorrow.

These people truly are fucktards. They have no soul and need to be crushed political, so that a true alternative to them can rise in their place. The left will continue to win so long as the current right retains power. Republicans are not the lesser of two evils; they are the greater evil. But why did Trump concede to Biden? Because he doesn't want to lose his twitter account. Trump wants to be able for all eternity to say crazy shit and he can't do that with twitter. Once he is out of office, which he knows in his heart will happen in a few weeks, twitter will be the only way for him to have a voice. So once again, Trump is looking out for himself. He doesn't want Biden to be president, which is clear from the fact that he will not attend the inauguration.
